“Being on a college campus as a Thames student really helped me prepare for college life. I like to be active and do interesting things.”

HANA RIHANI, THAMES ALUM & CURRENT MITCHELL STUDENT

POINT TOWARD *POSSIBILITIES.

Mitchell College is proud to provide Living and Learning support programs, which have been recognized as one of the premier academic support systems in the country. Each are designed to help you thrive on your life-changing path to self-discovery and radical possibilities.

Thames at Mitchell College

Thames at Mitchell College is a transitional program offering a one-of-a-kind opportunity to ease into life after high school with supportive faculty and a strong social network. Thames students build executive functioning skills, gain social confidence, and prepare for new educational or life transitions at the welcoming Mitchell campus.

Bentsen Learning Center

The Bentsen Learning Center (BLC) supports students with diagnosed learning differences and ADHD. Through this fee-based program, students learn strategies for success—both in college and in life—supported by individual Learning Specialists.

The Mystic Program

In this residential, social transition program, Mystic guides Mitchell students as they navigate the transition from high school to college. Mystic students get college ready with professional residential advisors through this fee-based program.

"I liked Mitchell the best—the location on the Thames River, the wonderful students and faculty who eventually helped me grow a lot as a person, and how welcoming and inclusive the school was."

MARIAH ZELL, '17

Here's a radical question: What if you came to college to study you? Your dreams. Your goals. Your almos<sup>t</sup>s. Your what-ifs.

The power that's already in you makes it possible at Mitchell College, a small private college in historic New London, Connecticut.

Here, students are encouraged to find their voice, meet their people, and push themselves to lengths they never expected. It all happens within a uniquely personalized, supportive community...one where "unconventional" is the standard.
